Discussion on a request to the United States Coast Guard to reconsider the permanent disestablishment of the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy “C” (LLNR 520)

COAST GUARD EXTENDS COMMENT PERIOD ON PROPOSAL TO REMOVE CHATHAM BEACH LIGHTED WHISTLE BUOY C

Town of Chatham officials are urging members of the commercial and recreational boating communities to submit written comments opposing the U.S. Coast Guard proposal to disestablish the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy C (LLNR 520) before the close of the extended public comment period on February 7, 2020.

The Coast Guard is seeking written comments on the proposed removal including: “size and type of vessel, recreational or commercial, and distance from aid that you start looking for it, and if and how you use the signal.” Written comments only, referring to Project No. 01-18-041, should be emailed to D01-SMB-DPWPublicComments@uscg.mil or Lieutenant Arthur Frooks at Arthur.E.Frooks@uscg.mil.

The Town is deeply concerned over the impact of removing this vital aid to navigation. This buoy is heavily relied upon by thousands of local mariners as the only inshore aid to navigation in the vicinity of Chatham that can be reliably obtained by radar. Given the high frequency of reduced visibility along the east side of Cape Cod, most notably during peak boating season, removal of this aid is a significant public safety concern.

To request that the United States Coast Guard reconsider the permanent disestablishment of the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy “C” (LLNR 520) based on the following:

Whereas…. Whistle Buoy “C” has been in place for 25 years and is an important navigational aid for fisherman, recreational boaters, emergency responders including the Coast Guard and is considered a significant buoy;

Whereas…. Whistle Buoy “C” marks a federally maintained channel and anchorage known as Aunt Lydia’s Cove channel stationed at the entrance to Chatham Harbor and is the only inshore aid to navigation in the vicinity of Chatham that can be reliably obtained by radar;

Whereas…. Whistle Buoy “C” marks the only navigable inlet on Cape Cod’s eastern shoreline and has been an indispensable part of complex local aids to navigation noting that the next closest ports being Provincetown and Nantucket;

Whereas…. The town of Chatham and the Cape Cod region have a good and long standing relationship with the United States Coast Guard;

Whereas…. The town of Chatham was only recently made aware of the plan and short timing to disestablish Whistle Buoy C;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Barnstable County Assembly of Delegates Proclaims;

That the navigational aid known to the U.S. Coast Guard as the Chatham Whistle Buoy “C” (LLNR 520) should continue to serve the maritime public; and

That the plan by the U.S. Coast Guard to disestablish Whistle Buoy “C” should be abandoned; and

That the U.S. Coast Guard should take all appropriate measures available at its disposal to secure the location and proper positioning of Chatham Whistle Buoy “C” now and for the future.

Subject: Buoy

I am writing in regard to LNM 22/18 which calls for the permanent disestablishment of the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy C (LLNR 520). I was unaware of this change until receiving a call from the Coast Guard Cutter Oak on December 10, 2019. Our office routinely works with the Coast Guard on a local and regional level and yet no mention of this disestablishment was delayed until this month. This is of particular concern given the timing of this disestablishment.

Chatham is home to the largest commercial fishing fleet on Cape Cod and has approximately 3,000 permitted boat moorings. Locally, our staff deploys over a 100 private aids to navigation to assist the Coast Guard in marking the complex and highly traveled waterways. However, we do not possess the equipment or funding to replace this buoy with a private aid. The Chatham "C" buoy is the only inshore aid to navigation in the vicinity of Chatham that can be reliably obtained by radar. This aid is heavily relied upon by commercial and recreational boaters as well as maritime emergency responders including Coast Guard Station Chatham.

News of this disestablishment has come as a surprise to our staff and the local maritime community. This issue is of great concern and has been placed on the agenda for all of our water related committees. I request that this aid not be disestablished and that it continue servicing the maritime public as an aid to navigation in this already difficult area of navigation.

Dear LT Frooks,

We the Board of Selectmen for the Town of Chatham write to you today to express our deep concern for the Coast Guard’s plan to disestablish the Chatham Beach lighted whistle buoy "C" LLNR 520. This buoy was originally established approximately 28 years ago at the request of the then Officer in Charge, Senior Chief Jack Downey. This buoy marks the only navigable inlet on Cape Cod’s eastern shoreline. The next closest ports are Provincetown and Nantucket. It has been an indispensable part of our complex local aids to navigation. Nearly 3,000 vessels are stationed in the waters of Chatham Harbor and Pleasant Bay which includes the Towns of Chatham, Brewster, Harwich and Orleans. Our local commercial fishermen and maritime emergency responders, including the Coast Guard use Chatham inlet and the "C" buoy on a year-round basis. As you are aware, this buoy is a lighted whistle buoy that is of sufficient size to provide a clearly visible radar return in this area’s notorious fog conditions.

We continue to be concerned at the degradation of the Coast Guard’s response capabilities and services. This concern not only includes the anticipated removal of the "C" buoy but also the re-classification of Station Chatham from a “Surf Station” to a “Heavy Weather Station” and the criteria and justification by which that decision was made. Additionally, we remained troubled by the reliability of the current three 42’ Near-shore Lifeboats and the Coast Guards plan for their eventual replacement. As you may or may not be aware, these vessels were purchased by the Coast Guard specifically for Chatham’s infamously treacherous area of responsibility after close to a decade of research and testing for replacement of the 44’ Motor Lifeboat as the Coast Guard had no appropriate vessel in its inventory for this area.

We hope the Coast Guard will re-consider the disestablishment of the "C" buoy east of Chatham, would have 100% of the required minimum lot size. She said this method is more appropriate for larger lots in R40 or R60 zoning.

Chairman Messina said the historic character in Town is in danger and there needs to be creative ways to counter the potential loss of historic structures. Principal Planner Sabatino said there would need to be some requirement for the property owner to preserve the historic structure. Chairman Messina added that a residency requirement for the second structure could be considered.

It was noted that either method includes certain complexities that may be difficult for people to understand. The need to work out Planning Board and Zoning Board of Appeals authorities under either method was noted.

The abundance of pre-existing non-conforming properties in Town were discussed.

Chairman Messina said other methods such as disincentives to altering historic structures were not favored by the building community.

The Board encouraged Principal Planner Sabatino and Chairman Messina to continue their work on this concept.

It was noted that every year additional structures reach the 75-year mark and are considered historic. Chairman Messina said the benchmark for the definition could be raised to 100 years and said the Bylaw applies to those over 75 years old and historically significant.

The Board thanked Chairman Messina and Principal Planner Sabatino for the presentation.

The Board took no action.

D. Permanent Disestablishment of the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy; LLNR 520

Harbormaster Stuart Smith said the one lighted buoy offshore of Town is being considered for removal by the Coast Guard in June 2020 after being in place for 28 years. He said it is important that Chatham Inlet be lit. The Coast Guard has rationalized the removal because the buoy keeps moving, it is not marking a federally maintained channel and because Station Chatham has been down graded to a heavy weather station from a surf station. Harbormaster Smith said Aunt Lydia’s Cove is a federally maintained channel. He said he is encouraging the public to contact the Coast Guard with objections and concerns and noted the contact information is on the Harbormasters web page.

The dangers that fishermen already face due to seasonal limitations and quotas were noted and the loss of this buoy will compound the risk. It was suggested the Board advocate strongly for the reinstatement of the buoy. It was suggested the Board send a letter to the Coast Guard conveying its objections and reach out to other Select Boards in neighboring towns as all local mariners will be affected by this decision.

Harbormaster Smith said the Coast Guard petitioned itself for the installation of the buoy 28 years ago. He said Station Chatham is not responsible for the buoy as that is handled by Group Woods Hole and entities in Rhode Island. He discussed the downgrading of Station Chatham and the erosion of the Coast Guard’s presence in Town. The need for a quick response from the Town was noted. A conference call with the District Commander and contact with Congressional delegation were suggested.

Motion: by Dean Nicastro that the Board authorize the Chairman and Town Manager to follow up with appropriate communications and correspondence to the various authorities and to reach out to neighboring communities from Harwich up to Provincetown in support of keeping this buoy with all due alacrity.
Second: by Jeffrey Dykens.

E. Special Town Meeting 1/4/20 COA Property Acquisition 1610/0 Main Street (Article 4) – BOS Presentation Selectman Metters thanked the Chairman for adding this item to the agenda. He said that there are an important set of votes to be taken at the Special Town Meeting and it is important that outstanding questions be answered so that the voters have accurate information.

It was noted that the COA has three vans that can shuttle participants from the Annex in for large program that require overflow parking and that agreements with neighboring businesses for use of their lots were not necessary. It was noted that people seem to be looking for reasons that the site won’t work when if a list of things you would like to see in a COA site were developed 1610 Main Street would check many of the boxes.

It was noted that staff had prepared a Frequently Asked Questions document in follow-up to the Finance Committee meeting, letters to the editor, and other questions posed. The information was reviewed, and it was agreed that this information should be disseminated to the public.

Chairman Davis said the Board had voted in Executive Session earlier in the evening to release the two appraisals commissioned by the Town on 1610/0 Main Street. She said the first from 2018 valued the parcels at $745,000 combined and the 2019 appraisal valued the parcels at $775,000 combined. Town Manager Goldsmith noted appraisals are generally considered “stale” after 6 months as it relates to a Town acquisition. It was noted that the Town and seller had signed an Offer to Purchase with all contingencies included and it would be posted on the Town’s website.

Coast Guard rescue boats at the Chatham Fish Pier. Removal of the "C" buoy outside of Chatham Harbor won't impact the station's operations, according to officials, but selectmen are using all the resources at their disposal to try convince the Coast Guard to retain the buoy. FILE PHOTO

CHATHAM – The board of selectmen will do everything within its power to convince the Coast Guard not to remove the buoy marking the entrance to Chatham Harbor.

Officials have already been in contact with Senator Elizabeth Warren's office to enlist her help and last week voted agreed to write to Coast Guard brass to stress the need to retain the navigational marker. Selectmen also plan to ask neighboring towns to lend their voice to the protest.

"Unbelievable" is how Selectman Jeffrey Dykens characterized the Coast Guard's decision to remove the marker, officially known as the Chatham Beach Lighted Whistle Buoy C.

"We should bug whoever we need to bug to make sure this doesn't happen," Dykens said.

The buoy is scheduled for removal in late January or early February, Smith said.

The Coast Guard published a notice to mariners regarding the disestablishment of the buoy more than a year ago without notifying the town. Harbormaster Stuart Smith said he only learned about the plan when assistant harbormaster Jason Holm was contacted by a friend stationed on the cutter scheduled to remove the buoy to ask if Holm knew of the pending action.

The whistle buoy has been in place for 25 years, Smith said, and was originally added to mark the harbor entrance channel at the request of then-Chatham Coast Guard Chief Jack Downey. It's an important navigation aid for fishermen and recreational boaters alike, said Smith.

"It presents a large target for people coming in from the sea," he said.

The buoy does tend to move in heavy weather. Smith said in the past 10 years it has had to be moved back on station 11 times. It is "not an insignificant buoy," protruding 10 to 12 feet above the water and held in place by a 2,000 pound anchor. "If it's moving, they should put another [anchor] on there," Smith said.

Although Coast Guard officials say the buoy does not mark a federal channel, Smith said the Aunt Lydia's Cove channel is a federal maintained channel and anchorage. "They didn't seem to be aware of that," he said.

The town has had a good relationship with the Coast Guard, which is why it's surprising officials weren't notified of the buoy removal "until almost after the fact," said Select Chair Shareen Davis. Fishermen, especially, take risks going over the Chatham bar, especially these days when they are squeezed by quotes and days at sea limitations. One fishermen told her that if he can’t see the light of the “C” buoy, he knows it’s not a night to go over the bar.

“That’s the kind of risk guys are taking and have historically taken for as long as there’s been a bar and a Chatham Fish Pier,” she said. “And the fact that the Coast Guard is almost literally going behind our backs taking that 'C' buoy away is really atrocious.”

Selectmen and Smith worried that the buoy removal is another step in the downgrading of Station Chatham. Last year the station’s designation was changed from a surf station to a heavy weather station, and shoaling in the harbor has made it difficult for the station’s rescue boats to access the open sea from the fish pier.

“This is just another side of that whole scenario,” Davis said of the buoy removal.

Smith added that he’s worried what will happen when the current rescue boats, made especially for Chatham, reach the end of their useful life.

“You can begin to see the deterioration of the station, and none of it is good for the community,” he said.

The issues aren’t related and no changes to the station’s mission are planned, said Senior Chief Petty Officer Carlos Hessler. The decision to remove the “C” buoy, which is not located in a marked channel, was made at the upper levels of the agency and its absence will not impact the station’s operations, he said.

The station recently had three of its vessels out for repairs; two are now back in service, Hessler said. The 42-foot rescue boats have yet to reach their service life expectancy, and it would not be unusual for them to remain in service beyond that time, he added.

The more pressing need is to find docking space in Stage Harbor. Currently one of the rescue boats is kept at Stage Harbor Marine, but because of the changes in Chatham Harbor, Hessler wants the flexibility to move the vessels where they can be most useful, and for that he needs two slips in Stage Harbor. Plans to extend the town dock at Old Mill Boatyard to accommodate two Coast Guard slips will be presented to the board of selectmen in the next month or so, said Smith.

Officials need to follow “whatever avenues we have to to tackle this,” said Selectman Cory
Metters said of the buoy removal. "It's happening in a couple of weeks and we need to stop it."

"This is totally unacceptable," said Dykens.

Smith stressed the need to convince the Coast Guard not only to retain the whistle buoy, but to maintain full operations at Station Chatham.

"We need to emphasize that they're here because it's a really nasty place," he said, referring to conditions in the harbor and on the bar.

Fiscal Year 2013
DPH Best Practice Revisions 10/05/2017

BASIC CONCEPTS

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS
The terms of the contract program budget govern the selection of the proper program components and titles to be used in the UFR. For example, if the contract program budget indicates that the program is to employ a "Social Worker-LICSW," UFR Title number 124 in category number 1 Direct Care/Program Staff, this position must also be disclosed in the UFR using the same UFR component and title. The program specifications included in the proposal furnished in response to the Request for Proposal (RFP) that was negotiated and incorporated into the contract with the purchasing department must be consistent with the definitions and specifications contained in this document. The UFR title number for a LSW (UFR Title number 126) should be disclosed if a LSW is currently employed in the program rather than the LICSW that was included in the negotiated contract. In most cases it is expected that budgeted and negotiated position should be the same as those disclosed in the UFR.

CREDENTIALS
Direct care/program staff components are defined, in part, in terms of required credentials. It is not relevant to the proper classification of a position that a staff member who currently fills the position possesses a particular credential, unless the RFR or contract requires the credential for that position.

FUNCTION VS. TITLE
Direct care/program staff components are determined by their program function. For example, a licensed physician should be classified as a "Physician" only if the physician provides medical care as outlined in the component definition. If a physician performs the functions of a "Program Director," then that component should be used.

It is the functional definition, not the title, which governs the definition of a particular component and UFR Title. A program's "Residence Director," for example, may be classified as a Program Manager, Program Director, Assistant Program Director, or Supervisor, depending upon the actual functions performed and the scope of responsibility involved. Yet the fact that the titles used in this document coincide with titles customarily used by program staff does not settle the question of proper classification. Again, this document's definitions govern. A particular program position is classified as a "Case Worker/Manager", rather than as a "Counselor", if the required credentials and responsibilities coincide more closely with the definition of "Case Worker".

This document is formatted to establish a hierarchical schedule for the components, e.g. the Program Director would report to the Program Manager, and a Direct Care/Program Staff I would report to a Direct Care/Program Staff Supervisor. All direct care or program staff positions which are not specifically defined in this document, such as American Sign Language interpreter, phlebotomist, instructor, resource librarian, medical technician, health education specialist, work procurement specialist, certified occupational therapy assistant, etc., should be classified as "Direct Care/Program Staff I, II or III," as appropriate.

CATEGORY 1: DIRECT CARE / PROGRAM STAFF
Category 1 includes direct care staff/program staff required to provide direct care or deliver other primary program services.

<td>Direct Care Overtime Expense: Overtime payroll expense paid to exempt and nonexempt employees pursuant to discretionary overtime policies of the organizations, the U.S. Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the Commonwealth's Minimum Fair Wage Law of MGL Chapter 151. Overtime payment represents the total amount of pay furnished for the time worked after the overtime threshold has been exceeded. Overtime pay is composed of straight time (regular fulltime pay for the time worked after the threshold has been exceeded) plus additional compensation furnished to an individual after the overtime time threshold has been exceeded (Time and 1/2 (or greater) for nonexempt employees working in excess of 40 hours per week). Discretionary overtime policies of the organizations may provide exempt employees with overtime using a threshold that may be greater or lesser than required for nonexempt employees. DPH Narrative: must be &gt;40 hrs and pre-approved by DPH program. $ should be on this line as to support overtime costs as needed (perhaps % of salary). OR % can be set up on exact position line and moved into code 139 when overtime is billed dependant on program needs and budget approval from DPH.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>140</td>
<td>Shift Differential Salary Expense: Salary expense incurred for providing on call services and working late night and early morning shifts. For instance, a nurse that is employed in a program who works full-time in the first shift may be paid less than the same type of nurse working full-time in the third shift. The nurse working in the second or third shift is paid the same full-time salary but receives an additional incentive payment or differential payment for working the third shift because working the third shift is a hardship. Similarly, the nurses noted above might receive payments in addition to their full-time salary and any overtime paid if the nurse agrees to be on call on days off in case the nurse’s service is needed for an emergency. DPH Narrative: difference of the salary is set up in this code, therefore the individual is budgeted under two UFR codes which accurately reports FTE’s.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>141</td>
<td>Relief Staff Expense: Payments to an individual to provide direct care services to relieve regular employees of their direct care duties on a temporary basis. Individuals providing temporary direct care services may not be an employee of the Contractor employed to provide the same type of employment services as the relief staff services. This expense is related to individuals not considered to be independent Contractors and/or employees of the organization that are not entitled to receive overtime payments for furnishing direct care services to relieve regular employees of their duties on a temporary basis. Employees are generally entitled to receive overtime payments (not relief payments) if they occupy nonexempt positions and management permits them to work in excess of 40 hours a week to furnish employment services. Individuals not employed by the organization are considered independent Contractors if they were paid more than $600 during the year the services were furnished to the organization. The organization is required to furnish the independent Contractor noted above with an IRS form 1099MISC. See Title 202 for relief staff services furnished on a contracted basis DPH practice is to use code 202.</td>

Authorizing the award of a contract to American Fire Training Systems, for a Fire Training Academy Prop (Mobile), for a total cost of $374,000.00
MEMORANDUM

TO: County Commissioners

FROM: Jennifer Frates, Chief Procurement Officer

RE: Notice of Bid Award - #7897 Fire Training Academy Prop (Mobile)

Barnstable County issued an Invitation for Bid for Fire Training Academy Prop (Mobile). Three bids were received from the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Company</th>
<th>Bid Amount</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fire Training Structures</td>
<td>$259,971.00</td>

<tr>
<td>American Fire Training Systems</td>
<td>$374,000.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alpine Metal Tech</td>
<td>$425,500.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

After evaluating the proposals the low bidder was deemed non-responsive for not meeting the specifications in the IFB for the following reasons:

1) The low bid did not include a retractable catwalk around the mobile fire trainer. The proposal only showed removable stairs leading up to the doors. The retractable catwalk is a key aspect of the unit.
2) The low bid proposed to build the mobile trainer using a refurbished chassis. This is a potential safety and warranty concern.
3) The low bid did not include on board propane storage. The proposal suggested portable “hand cart” for propane storage that would be hooked up to the unit each time it was used. This presents serious logistical challenges.
4) No onboard generator was proposed. This presents logistical challenges.
5) The optional generator was not a matching fuel type (gasoline vs. diesel) which presents logistical challenges.

The second low bidder did include a proposal that met our specifications therefore they are the responsive, responsible bidder offering the lowest price.

Please vote to award Bid #7897 Fire Training Academy Prop (Mobile) to American Fire Training Systems for a total cost of $374,000.

Thank you.
